

University of Hawaii Astronomy Program Supplemental Information Form

Applicants should submit this form in place of the "Graduate Program Supplemental Information Form."

Name

Email address

Citizenship

Telephone Number Home, Office, Cell.

Home Page URL (if available)

(For use between January 1 and April 15.)

Which degree are you applying for?

- MS
 PhD (with MS degree en route)
 PhD (with existing Master's)

Do you wish to apply for a graduate assistantship?

- Yes
 No

Bachelor's Degree (or equivalent)

University or College

Physics and Astronomy credits:

Already earned: _____

State or Country

Total anticipated by graduation: _____

Major Field of Study

Overall current GPA: _____

Date awarded or expected

Current GPA for Physics and Astronomy courses: _____

Graduate Record Examination and TOEFL scores (if applicable)

	Score	Percentile	Date
GRE-Verbal
GRE-Quantitative
GRE-Analytical
GRE-Physics
TOEFL-Paper
TOEFL-Computer

Use best score if exam taken more than once. Enter the anticipated date for the exam if you haven't yet taken it.

Activity since bachelor's degree (including any graduate study)

Name

Research experience (such as REUs, observing trips, faculty collaborations etc)

You may include more details in your personal statement, if you wish.

Referees:

Name, Affiliation, and Email address	(Leave Blank)

Have you had any previous communication with any UH astronomy faculty?
If so, please elaborate:

Personal Statement

Please enclose a personal statement. We would like to hear about your experience, your interests, your goals, your achievements (not necessarily academic) and any other information you think might be relevant to your application. Also, feel free to comment on any aspect of your academic record that you think might concern the admissions committee.

Mail to: Astronomy Graduate Admissions
Institute for Astronomy,
2680 Woodlawn Drive,
Honolulu, HI 96822, USA

Deadline: December 31.