

Note: all summit routers, including all telescope facilities, the summit, and Hale Pohaku routers, are connected directly via an SVC mesh. This means that each router is connected directly to all the other routers.

