Astronomy and Astrobiology Workshop for grades 7-12 students and their teachers

Kauai Community College
Learning Resource Center, Room 123
January 30-31, 2009

sponsored by
University of Hawaii
Institute for Astronomy & NASA NAI Team

with Guest Speaker
Sanjay Limaye
NASA Missions
University of Wisconsin

Staff
Mike Nassir, UH Physics & Astronomy
Steve Taylor, KCC Astronomy
Mathew Cochran, KCC Physics
Mary Kadooka, UH IfA Outreach
Hsuan-Yun Pi, U.Wisconsin, Madison

Program Activities

Friday, Jan. 30; 6:00 - 9:00 p.m.
- Use Stellarium Software
- View the Night Sky
- Star Party with Telescopes
- Observe with Faulkes Telescope

Saturday, Jan 31; 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.
- Color Spectrum + Others
- What is Astrobiology?
- Measure Venus Cloud Speeds
- Observe with DeKalb Telescope

Freebies
- Books
- Bookmarks
- Posters
- Stickers

Registration Form

Limited Enrollment - - Deadline: Jan. 21, 2009

Teacher Name _______________________________________________
Home Address _____________________________________________
City, State, Zip ___________________________________________
Email address _____________________________________________
School _____________________________________________ School Fax ____________________
Grade Level_________ Subject ___________________________

You may register 3 Gr 7-12 Students. Send names and grade. Others will be put on a wait list.

Email form information to Mary Kadooka: kadooka@ifa.hawaii.edu